Dental Assistant Interview Questions

Dental assistants have a dual role, both administrative and related to patient care. Requirements vary per location — sometimes a high school diploma is enough, while other times they need to graduate from an accredited training program. A CPR certificate is necessary in most cases.

The role can be simple or more complex, depending on regulations. Beside administrative and sanitation tasks, qualified dental assistants are allowed to perform procedures like coronal polishing or sealant application and operate x-ray equipment. Tailor your questions according to what you're looking for; unlicensed, registered (RDA) or expanded functions dental assistants (EFDA).

If you're looking for RDAs or EFDAs, dedicate some time during the interview to assess their technical expertise. Key soft skills are attention to detail, organizational ability and people skills. Make sure the person you'll eventually hire can take instructions and communicate effectively. Quick thinking and enthusiasm can always make a difference.
